

Applications must be filed in duplicate originals and must be accompanied by triplicate unmounted photographs of the applicant, together with his wife and minor children above nine years of age, if any, not larger than three by three inches in size, one of which is to be affixed to the passport by the Government. The photographs must be on thin paper and must have light background. The one not attached to the application should be signed by the applicant across its face, so as not to obscure the features.

This blank must be completely filled out. Applicant shall pay two pesos, Philippine currency, for the passport, three pesos for six oaths on the two applications, and one peso and twenty centavos for six twenty-centavo internal-revenue stamps to be affixed to oaths.

A woman's application must state whether she is married, and a married woman must state whether her husband is a citizen of the Philippine Islands.

Write your name plainly and in full.
